

Life Group Notes – Acts 10

2nd February 2020 – Stuart

Questions are based on Acts 10:1-48

1. This account takes place almost 10 years after Jesus tells the disciples to take the gospel into all the world. Why are we so slow to obey?
2. The Holy Spirit came upon the Gentiles midway through Peter's sermon.
 - a. Why do you think God did that?
 - b. Is there anything we can learn from this?
3. Stuart mentioned problems with Peter's heart, problems with Cornelius' heart and problems with our hearts.
 - a. What was Peter struggling with?
 - b. What was wrong with Cornelius' heart? (Cornelius was God fearing, prayerful, generous financially and yet he wasn't saved).
 - c. What does this passage highlight could be problems with our hearts? (our attitude to other nations, prejudice, racism, class, etc)
4. Stuart said that we are all a little weird.
 - a. Does that offend you? (he did include himself 😊)
 - b. He also mentioned 'no perfect people allowed' and 'everybody is normal until you get to know them'. How do these phrases affect the way we behave as a community?
 - c. Where does discipleship and leadership fit into the welcoming of 'all types of people'?
5. What did you feel when you opened the envelope? (You are invited. Love, Jesus)
6. Try to explain why the Gospel is good news to all nations.
7. Did God challenge you on anything personally on Sunday morning?
